“JUST LIVING THE BEST LIFE”

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With great enthusiasm and a sense of anticipation, we present the second edition of The Reagle — a lively continuation of our journey of creativity, connection and campus life.

Building upon the renewed spirit of our Revamp edition, this issue opens its pages to a diverse kaleidoscope of voices, experiences, ideas, and moments that have shaped life within our boarding community. From reflective thoughts and creative expressions to light-hearted quizzes, music and personality-based features, there is something to discover, relate to and enjoy on every page.

This edition also turns the spotlight towards the people who add their own distinctive colour to our boarding family, welcoming new faces, celebrating individuality and bringing forth conversations that offer a closer glimpse into the people and personalities behind our everyday campus life.

Our pages also capture the spirit of celebration and remembrance — from festivities that bring us together to moments that honour our history, heritage and shared values. We also celebrate the energy of competition, teamwork, leadership and the many initiatives that continue to make boarding life a space for growth beyond the classroom.

A special place in this edition is reserved for wellness, voice and self-expression — reminding us that a thriving community is one that learns, participates, celebrates, supports and grows together. Through student-led initiatives and original contributions, our young writers and creators continue to prove that every voice has a story worth sharing.

This issue is, above all, a celebration of our students— their stories, their ideas, their humour, their talents and their everyday moments. It is a snapshot of where we are today, while also looking forward to all that lies ahead.

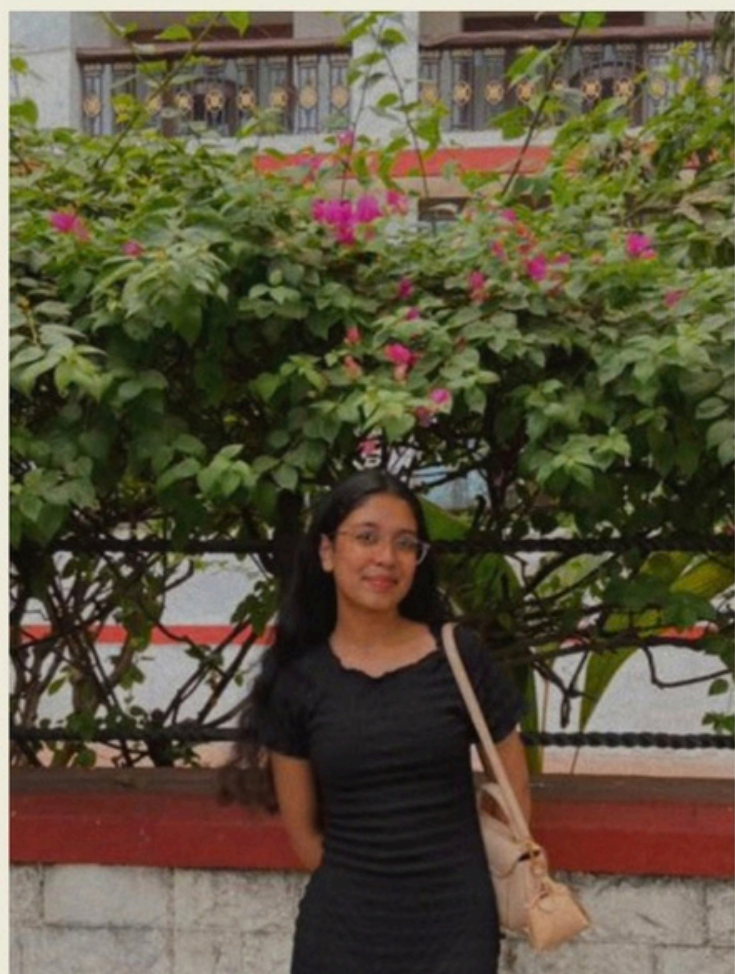

So, turn the page, explore, laugh, reflect, discover and most importantly, make yourself a part of the story.

Here's to the second edition of The Reagle!!

Warm Regards,
Ms. Kritika Saxena
Teacher In-Charge

From The Editor's Desk

There's a specific kind of quiet that settles over the boarding house right after a break, that brief pause before everyone unpacks, reconnects and the building comes alive again. Coming back always brings a mix of comfort and fresh energy: the familiar noise in the hallways, late-night stories brought back from everywhere.

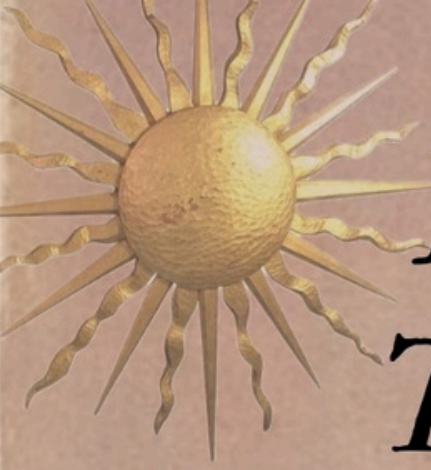

This issue is about that shared rhythm. Beyond the academic wins and sports fixtures, the real core of house life is in the smaller, unscripted moments, impromptu debates, pre-exam panic in the corridors, eating tucks at odd hours, and the quiet ways we look out for each other.

Inside, you'll find a mix of creative work, personal essays, and honest snapshots of what living here actually feels like. Every piece reflects the personality, sharp humor and grit of the people who make this what it is.

Huge thanks to the editorial team for putting in the late hours and sorting through every detail to bring this together. And to everyone reading, I hope these pages feel familiar.

Welcome to the second edition.

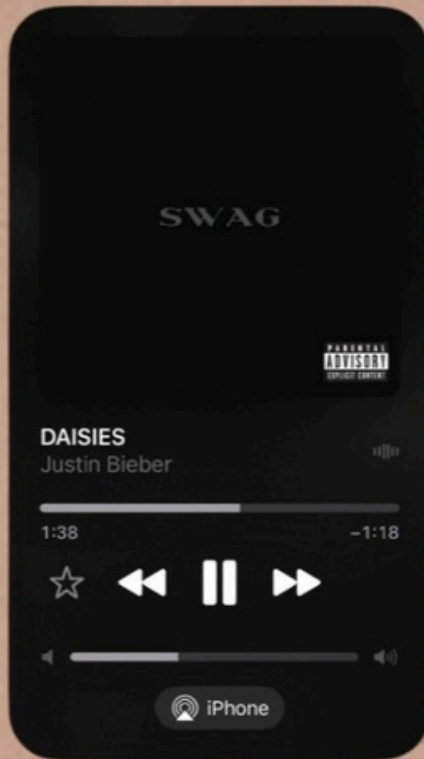

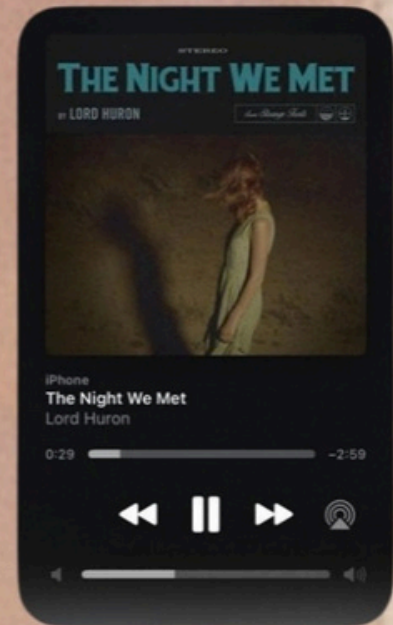

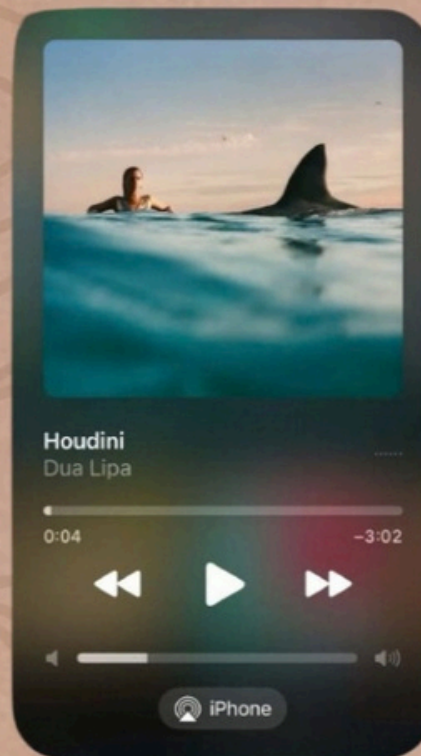

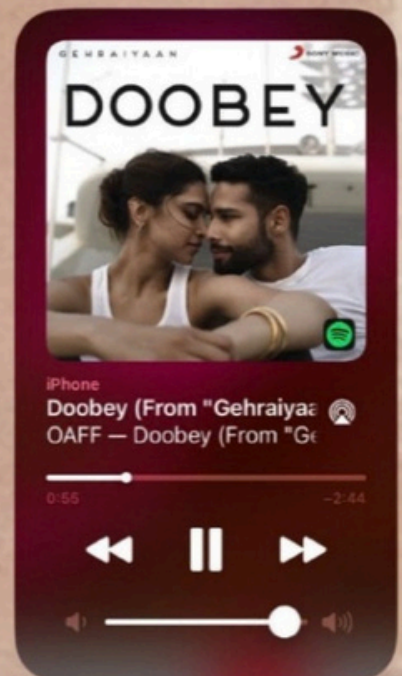

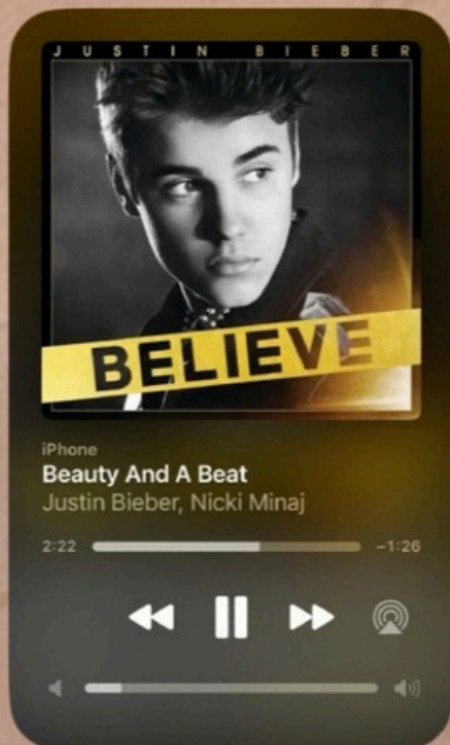

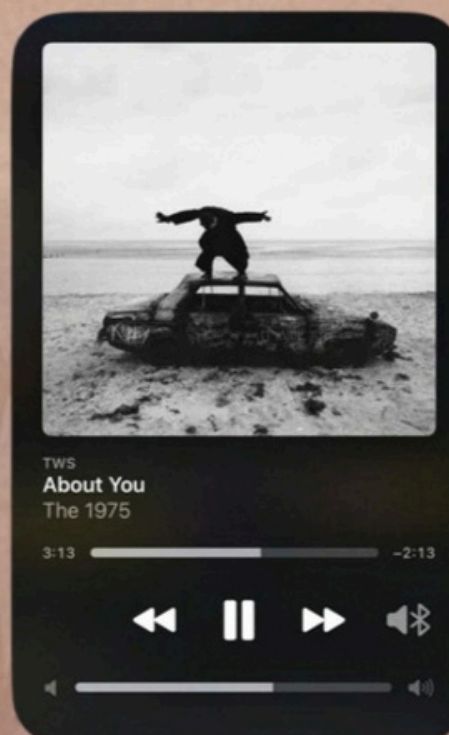

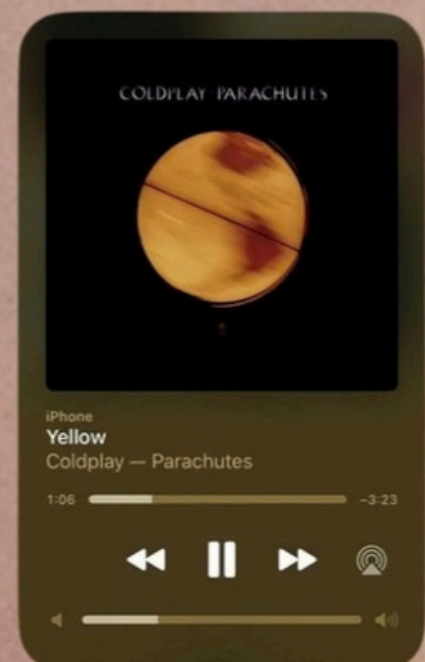

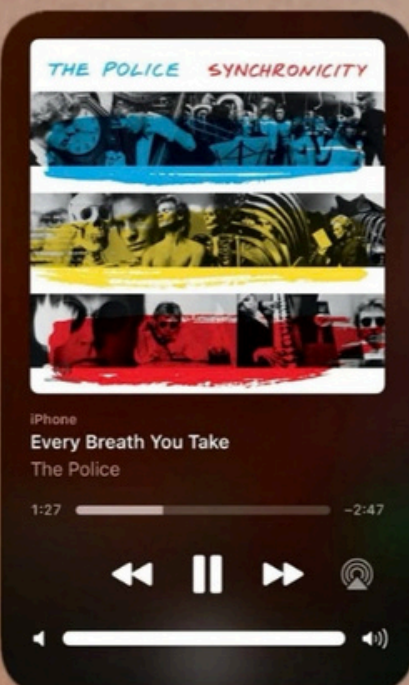

Warmly,
Pranati Sharma

 - D. Spending time with friends.

Mostly A's = Sunrise Soul

You're the organised, dependable one. Somehow, you're ready before everyone else and always have your life (atleast) mostly together.

Mostly B's = Certified Yapper

You could turn a five-minute break into a full-blown conversation. You know the gossip, the stories, and somehow everyone knows you.

Mostly C's = Walking Plot Twist

You don't need to look for adventure, somehow, it just happens around you. Your boarding life is basically one long collection of stories.

Mostly D's = Safe Haven

You're the person people naturally come to when they need someone. You make the dorm feel warmer, friendlier, and a little more like home.

THE CURRENT CONNOISSEUR

Everybody on the PC's, muttering about which athlete won which medal and who Nepal's defence minister is. THAT is what the first round of The Current Connoisseur was, no matter the dorm. The first round was full of enthusiasm for the thrill of being challenged by the written MCQ-style question paper consisting of 30 questions, on various topics ranging from general knowledge to the name of Noida International Airport (which almost EVERYONE got wrong!). When we left for prep, seeing Yatheesha sir and Aashna ma'am with white bundle of papers made our hearts race. After the test, we all went back to studying and quietly discussing Geopolitics and which country resigned from the WHO.

On Thursday night, the news broke. Two students from each dorm were selected for the greatly awaited (and feared) SECOND ROUND!

With 8 fiery rounds of the competition on stage in the Badan Rang Shala Auditorium, the entire boarding community and staff had their eyes on the participants and their witty and knowledgeable answers. Each round added layers to the colourful picture of being mindful of what was going on around us. The students displayed their preparation wonderfully, despite the nervousness and stage fright of doing something never done inside RKK's walls before. The competition ended with an energetic rapid-fire audience round, with teachers, parents and Aa alike showcasing their quick thinking. The winning dormitory was Rani Pratap De, Rani Jasma De coming second, Rani Parvati Kanwar De bagging third position. Soon enough, once the rounds wrapped up, the results were announced; the participants realised that the goal was never winning in the first place; it was always to learn, to grow, and to try.

UDAIPUR

Unforgettable Days in Udaipur

From blasting music at full volume while getting ready in our room to sharing endless laughs and non-stop energy, this freshers trip was one for the books. Sharing a room meant zero sleep, endless hype sessions and memories that made every second worth it.

Our poor photographer bhaiya ji definitely deserves an award for enduring our relentless “Bhaiya, ek aur pic please!”, “Bhaiya ek candid photo bhiiii!” at every single pretty corner of the hotel. Between devouring amazing food, cheering on the freshies during their ramp walks, dancing our absolute hearts out, and diving into the pool party, there wasn't a single dull moment.

Udaipur gave us stunning views, but the best part was sharing it all with the best people. Here's to a freshers trip we'll be talking about forever!

Faces behind the care

Sunita Baiji

1. आप कितने समय से यहाँ काम कर रहे हैं?

मैं 2009 से यहाँ काम कर रही हूँ।

2. इस स्कूल में आपको सबसे अच्छा क्या लगता है?

मुझे अपने हॉस्टल के बच्चे बहुत अच्छे लगते हैं। जब सभी इन-हाउस टीचर्स, वार्डन्स और बच्चे मिल-जुलकर रहते हैं, तो मुझे बहुत अच्छा लगता है। मुझे बच्चों के लिए काम करना भी बहुत अच्छा लगता है।

3. आप बच्चों को क्या सीख देना चाहेंगे?

मैं बच्चों से कहना चाहूँगी कि वे अपने माता-पिता से दूर रहकर अच्छी तरह पढ़ाई करें और अपने जीवन में आगे बढ़ें। हम साधारण परिवारों से आते हैं और बच्चों की पढ़ाई पर माता-पिता बहुत मेहनत और पैसे खर्च करते हैं, इसलिए उन्हें अपनी पढ़ाई की कद्र करनी चाहिए।

4. आपको अपने काम की सबसे अच्छी चीज़ क्या लगती है?

जब बच्चे मेरी नकल या मेरी एक्टिंग करते हैं, तो मुझे बहुत अच्छा लगता है और खुशी होती है।

5. आपको कौन-से गाने पसंद हैं और आपका पसंदीदा त्योहार कौन-सा है?

मुझे भोलेनाथ के भजन बहुत पसंद हैं। सरस्वती माता की पूजा के समय गाने बजाना, मौली बाँधना और आरती करना भी मुझे बहुत अच्छा लगता है।

6. आपकी जिंदगी में आपको सबसे प्रेरित किसने किया है?

मेरे लिए बच्चे ही सबसे बड़ी प्रेरणा हैं। जब बच्चे घर चले जाते हैं, तो मुझे अच्छा नहीं लगता, क्योंकि हम उनके साथ रहते हैं और उनकी देखभाल करते हैं। बच्चों के पीछे ही हमारा बहुत-सा समय और मेहनत जुड़ी होती है।

Rampal Bhaiyaji

1. आप कितने समय से यहाँ काम कर रहे हैं?

“मैं लगभग 2-3 साल से यहाँ काम कर रहा हूँ।”

2. डाइनिंग हॉल में मेन्यू के अनुसार आपका फेवरेट डे क्या है?

“मेन्यू के हिसाब से मुझे मंगलवार का दिन अच्छा लगता है।”

3. इस स्कूल में सबसे अच्छा आपको क्या लगता है?

“मुझे यहाँ सभी लोग अच्छे लगते हैं। इसके अलावा, मुझे पेड़-पौधे बहुत अच्छे लगते हैं।”

4. आप बच्चों को क्या सीख देना चाहेंगे?

“मैं बच्चों से कहना चाहूँगा कि अच्छी तरह पढ़ाई करो और अपने से बड़ों से अच्छे से बात करो। ऐसा करोगे तो आगे जाकर जीवन में सफल होगे।”

5. आप खाने में सबसे अच्छा क्या बनाते हैं?

“मैं ऑमलेट बहुत अच्छा बना लेता हूँ।”

6. आपको अपने काम की सबसे अच्छी चीज़ क्या लगती है?

“मुझे यहाँ काउंटर पर खड़े होकर बच्चों को खाना देना अच्छा लगता है।”

7. आपको किस काम में सबसे ज़्यादा मुश्किल आती है?

“मुझे पढ़ाई करना बहुत मुश्किल लगता है।”

8. कौन-सा त्योहार आपको सबसे अच्छा लगता है?

“मुझे रक्षाबंधन का त्योहार अच्छा लगता है, क्योंकि उस दिन भाई अपनी बहनों से राखी बाँधवाते हैं।”

9. ऐसा कोई सपना जो आप अभी भी पूरा करना चाहते हैं?

“मेरा सपना था कि मैं एक बहुत बड़ा आदमी बनूँ, लेकिन अभी तक यह सपना पूरा नहीं हो पाया है।”

INK BY US

"We knew each other in our uniforms, pink & grey night suit but Udaipur gave us chance to see whole new side of each other."

Hey, a few days back I had my first ever fresher's party and I just me it was the best party I ever had.

What do you think when you heard 'fresher's'? That it is an college thing? No I thought the same but guess what, I am in 11th grade and I had my fresher's party already - Yayyy!!!

It was not only about the 3 days at trip, but the fun began a month before while shopping, packing, practising ramp walk (especially the one in the down) and stressing over the introduction all together made it even more special. On the morning at 4am with sleepy heads when we got ready and were heading towards our buses we all felt so excited and the bus journey which was truly unforgettable with music all the way and a truly fascinating view was just the beginning. Then we reached Udaipur which has the best weather ever. We went to many places but the fresher's party which was at our hotel was the best of all where all the girls where looking fabulous along with their gorgeous looking teachers and the freshers had the best excuse to show their charm. In fresher's everyone was nervous but still managed to stay the ramp. Everyone was literally bliss out there. We had the best group walk, fab intro, mesmerising food and thousands of memories grabed lot photos. After fresher's we all were so tired but of course we didn't sleep all night. The day we left were leaving Udaipur felt heavy, always we made the best memories we'll cherish forever as this was the first page of story we will never forget.

The Whisper of the Tree

In the shades of tree the little girl feels cool and safe, and goes into a sleep of Dreams. The leaves whisper secrets in a soft, green hum while butterflies dance to the beat of a drum. She flies over mountains on wings made of light, where day never ends and colours are bright. The branches embrace her, a cosy cradle so high, beneath the vast ceiling of summers blue sky, with sunbeams that flicker through shadows above, she's wrapped in a blanket of Solace and love. When she emerges, the world will be new dotted with sunlight and mornings fresh dew, but for now, in the garden she's perfectly still, while the wind hums a song from top of the hill.

Hey, It's Jinsha Singhani a new comer in RKK Boarding.

When I came here the first thing I heard from everyone was about Fresher's I was so excited about fresher's from the day fresher's date was announced. I always used to think that which type of dress should I wear. And finally the most awaited day was here when we took out our baggage from the store room and started packing for my first fresher's party. Because of excitement I was not able to sleep the night before we were leaving for Udaipur. It was 6:00 am the morning we all were heading to our buses with our bag full of clothes and heart full of joy. In bus we enjoyed alot as we all were dancing, listening music, jamming with a nap in between. After a wholesome morning we finally reached to the city of lakes Udaipur. There was a pool party and we all jumped into the pool as we had a lot of fun and. Finally D day was there. I was excited and nervous at the same time. And with all nervousness and excitement I walked through the ramp and ended up getting MISS GLORIOUS PRIZE. I'll always remember my amazing first fresher's party.

15 AUGUST

Upon waking, it was already 6am. Dorm-mates yelling constantly, kids wishing each other well, and somebody whispering their speeches to themselves like they were slowly going crazy. One moment we started practising, and the next we were on stage. Perhaps it is truly as they say; time flies when you're having fun! Backstage, everything was a flurry of "WHO'S GOING FIRST?!" and 'EVERYBODY QUIET, EVERYONE IS SEATED ALREADY!'. The gathering was graced by our honourable Principal ma'am and the Chief Guest, our Bursar Lt Col Simarpreet Singh Sir.

Each dorm displayed their hard work diligently.

The speeches were enlightening, with Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's eye-opening and iconic speech, "A Tryst With Destiny" and गया प्रसाद शुक्ल 'सनेही' की हृदयस्पर्शी कविता, "स्वदेश".

The Current Connoisseur dorm competition followed the first two dances by Rani Parvati Kanwar De dorm and Rani Pratap De dorm, which were energetic, lively, and brimming with young, lively patriotism. After the quick-fire and thought-provoking round of current affairs, we had a dance by Rani Saubhag De dorm's dazzling dancers, and finally, as a conclusion, we had a heartfelt speech by our respected Bursar, Lt Col Simarpreet Singh.

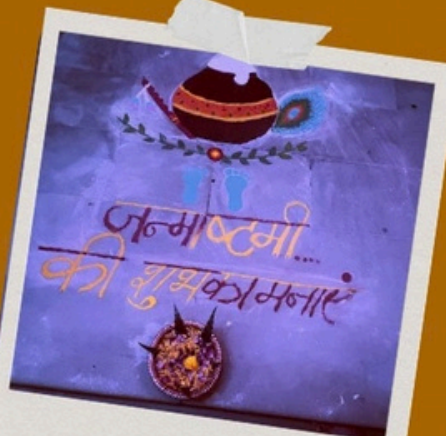

The ceremony ended with a hearty meal of Mirchi Vadas and Motichoor laddoos in the green lawns, which we enjoyed with our friends on this 80th Independence day.

JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

The celebration of Krishna Janmashtami in the RKK boarding house took place on the 4th of September 2026, with boarders from every dormitory enthusiastically coming together to celebrate the auspicious day of Krishna Ji's birth.

The word 'Janmashtami' is formed from two separate Sanskrit words; 'Janma' meaning birth and 'Ashtami' meaning the eighth day. It marks the celebration of Krishna's birth on the eighth day of the Hindu calendar month of Bhadrapada. The celebration in front of Meera hostel served as a beautiful break from the exam preparation for grades 6 to 12. Looking at little Krishna Ji in his jhoola, singing aartis and praying for our friends, family and our marks, tying maulis to our dormmates and savouring the sweet prashad gave all of us a sense of community and happiness, with the spirit of worship in the air and tikas on our foreheads.

॥ श्री गणेशाय नमः ॥

BAPPA'S DAY

“Ganpati Bappa Morya,
Mangal Murti Morya”

The boarders from grade 9 began making their rangoli and started chanting the mantras with zeal. The beautiful Marigolds were draped across the tables by baijis (the energy was all high that day, wasn't it?) The pedas were long awaited throughout the day; hats off to जनता स्वीट होम.

The 12thies and 10thies rushed out of their classes, as soon as the aarti went to their ears. Neither did the claps calm down nor did the chats, but was it all that day? Nah, the tilak made our faces light up a little, and also the मौली made me feel at home, as if my dadi was tying it around my wrist. The line for the “long awaited pedas” didn't seem to end because the boarders didn't seem to be having dinner that night rather being exclusively dependent on the pedas.

CENTENARY MEMORIAL LECTURE

"Understanding India's Past: Histories, Syncretic Culture and the Need to Decolonialise"

As we are celebrating the Centenary year of Rajmata Sahiba, on 21st September boarders of grade 10-12 assembled in Badan Rangshala Auditorium, where the event commemorated with the arrival of distinguished guests from across India. His Highness Maharaja Gaj Singh Ji and Her Highness Maharani Hemlata Rajye Sahiba arrived, soon followed by three more esteemed dignitaries, Padma Vibhushan Shri Montek Singh Ahluwalia who is a noted economist and former Deputy Chairman of the Planning Commission. He was the moderator of the session. Dr. Najeeb Jung, former Lt. Governor of Delhi and distinguished scholar was the first speaker of the day. Dr. Vikram Sampath, acclaimed historian and author, was the second speaker on the panel. The theme of this lecture was "Understanding India's Past: Histories, Syncretic Culture and the Need to Decolonialise". The main takeaway of the lecture was where we were introduced to two diverse perspectives that lead to the same eventual truth. The best part of this lecture was a line said by Dr Vikram Sampath, "the more you know the more you realise how less you know" (we just loved this line).
