

A peep into the activities of the month

Sunbeam Suncity (School & Hostel), Varanasi (RS Zoom Postcard)

Team RKK comprising Student Adult Incharge, Saanvi Agarwal and six participants Aadya Deedwania, Myra Basu, Naisha Aniruddha, Saanvi Jain, Siyona Mehta and Vaanya Mehta, under the guidance of Ma'am Sapna Gupta participated in RS Postcard Call organized by Sunbeam Suncity (School and Hostel), Varanasi on 1st November 2023. The first meeting was conducted on 21st October where the student incharge enlightened the team about RS Postcard Call and solved their queries. They confabulated and deliberated on the topic "Past Echoes Rediscovering Our Roots." Everyone was earmarked a task to research and create a document, thereby expressing her views on the given topic and had to describe any two objects. The next meeting was held on 25th October in which they were told to prepare individual postcards, including family tree and a speech. On 28th October, their third meeting was conducted, in which the student incharge discussed the further changes to be made in the postcards. Everyone recited their articulations describing their postcards meticulously. The last meeting took place on 30th October, where the rules and regulations to be followed in the main meeting were discussed and their queries regarding the main meeting were solved. On first November, the main Postcard Call took place. Sunbeam Suncity (School and Hostel), Varanasi, India welcomed RKKians. After a pleasant welcome and a kind courtesy, there was a speech by Pratima Ma'am on the reason of choosing this topic. After that, there was a speech on family legacies by Ragini Maharaj Ma'am who also talked about her Kathak journey. Thereafter, delegates were sundered into breakout rooms, where they played an icebreaker game on their future bucket list, in which, each one had to tell any two wishes of their choice which they want to complete in their life. Then, every participant presented her / his family tree and postcard, delivered their articulation and showed the objects they chose. Lastly, the host of every breakout room thanked the members and everyone was connected to the main meeting again, where they were asked about their experience in the breakout room. At last, all postcards were presented on the screen in a telegenic manner. Finally, the host expressed their gratitude towards all for participating and making the call a success.

On 3rd November 2023, Rajmata Krishna Kumari Girls' Public School celebrated its Junior Founder's Day with great enthusiasm and zeal at RKK, Jodhpur. The Junior school students of the school showcased the true essence of all religions, spreading the message of love, care and sharing through their enchanting performance of the time less classic story, 'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens.

The young artists stole the show with their mesmerizing music, scintillating dances, and captivating enactment, leaving the audience spellbound. Mrs. Neera Singh, the School Principal, read out the annual report, highlighting the remarkable achievements of the students and the school. The Head Girl, Nikita Vijyan delivered a vote of thanks to conclude the event.

The day was also marked by the distribution of Excellence Awards to recognize the Outstanding Performances of the students.

- Myra Prajapat and Mehal Sharda were conferred with the 'Most Congenial Student' Award
- Ira Pahwa and Yana Agarwal were presented the 'Most Active Participant' Award

- Anjal Kuvar Rathore was presented the 'Best Boarder' Award
- Devurat Singh Shekhawat was honoured with the 'Best Outgoing Boy' Award
- Saniksha Chouhan was conferred with the 'Best All – Rounder' Award

The highly esteemed presence of Dr. Amit Sen [Senior Child & Adolescent Psychiatrist, Co-Founder Children First] and Dr. Shelja Sen [Narrative Therapist & Family Therapist, Writer, Co-Founder Children First] as the Chief Guests added charm and grace to the occasion. The Royal family of Marwar, Board of Governors, distinguished guests and parents graced the event with their presence, making it an elegant and memorable affair.

The Senior School Day was commemorated with a lot of zest and indomitable enterprise on 4th November 2023 at Rajmata Krishna Kumari Girls' Public School, Jodhpur.

'The Illuminating Rhapsody' as the name suggests, was a soul-stirring rendition displayed by the Senior School students of RKKGPS, Jodhpur. With an intricately woven plot, the students moved the audience to pensive reflection on the decadence of 'Humanity' and the smouldering discontent that 'Mankind' is entrapped in. Eloquent content, powerful oration, mesmerising enactments, enchanting music and graceful dances combined to convey the quintessential teachings of the Sufi Saints, the epitome of 'Love' and 'Humanism', in the most enthralling and compelling manner.

The highlights of the students' achievements and the school's progress were read out in the Annual Report by the Principal, Mrs. Neera Singh, with pride, before the programme commenced. Students with outstanding performances were also felicitated with Excellence Awards. The Head Girl, Nikita Vijayan extended profuse gratitude to all present with her 'Vote of Thanks'.

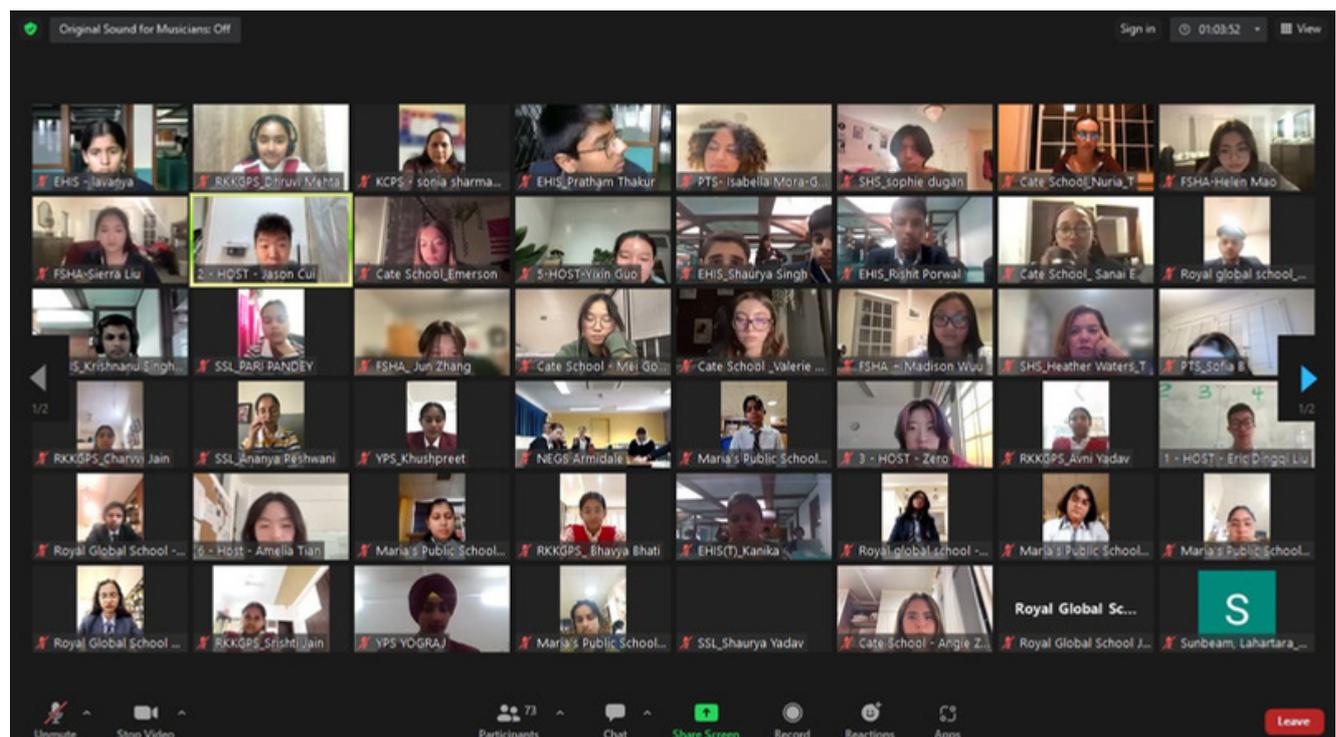

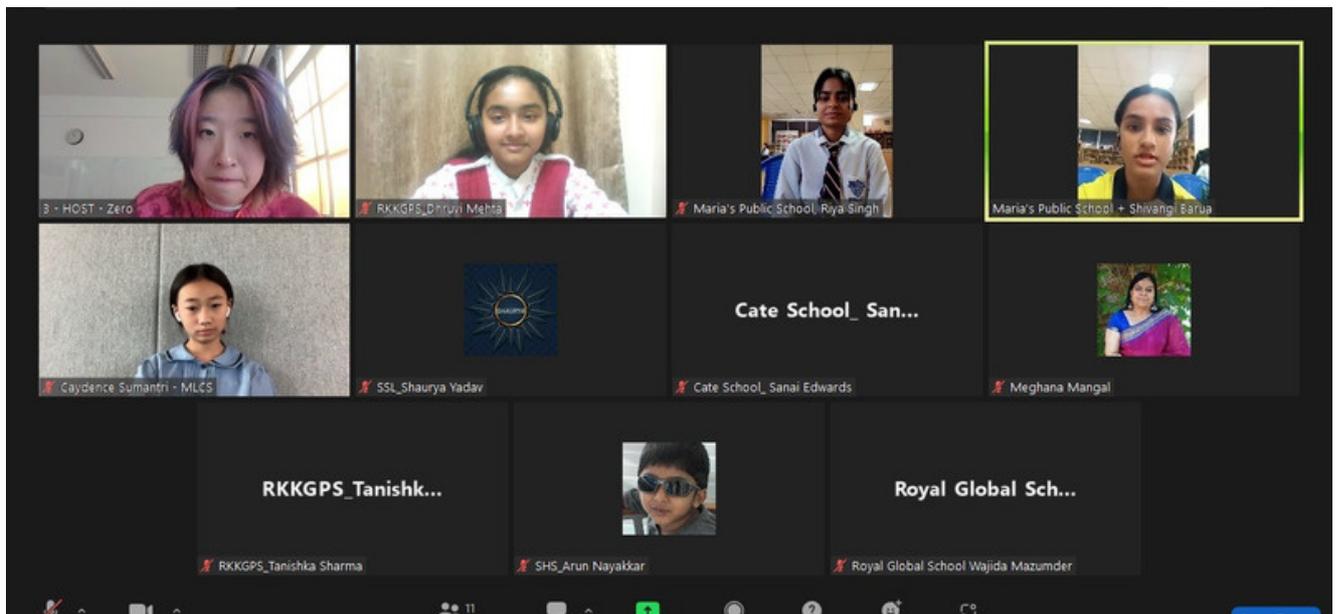

The venerated Chief Guest, Barkha Dutt, an enigmatic television journalist, was smitten with the fervour and camaraderie of the students. The revered Royal Family of Marwar, the dignified Board of Governors, acclaimed Guests of Honour and valued parents, added charm with their benign presence and left with a strong message, in adulation of the students.

The Affiliated High School of Peking University's Dalton Academy in China (RS Zoom Postcard)
